"What's right about me I'm not getting?"
FREE TALK ON ACCESS - JANUARY 7

Learn what it takes to live in the question. When you make a decision does it feel light or heavy? What if every choice was just a choice, no form, no structure, no judgment and no significance? There are an infinite amount of choices available to you now, in this moment. What would it be like to choose for you and have fun doing it?

BARS CLASS - JANUARY 8

Learn the Hands on process known as "Bars" and receive it.

Activating these points by lightly touching them and by allowing the energy to flow through these Bars releases the electrical charge that holds all considerations, judgements thoughts, beliefs, decisions, emotions or attitudes you have ever stored or decided were important in any lifetime.

There are 32 points or 'Bars' on the head including: Healing, Body, Sexuality, Money, Control, Aging, Hope and Dreams, Creativity, Power, Creating Life Forms, etc. After a Bars session the worst that can happen is, you feel like you had a great massage, the best thing that can happen is it can change your whole life.

Crystal & Brian, Nuahn Instructors

Angels of Enlightenment's
N.U.A.H.N. Healing Workshops

Nuahn is an acronym for Neural, Universal, Awareness, Healing, Network. Nuahn is an educational program that consists of twelve learning levels of mastery. Level one mastery is about self enlightenment.

Many teachings align people with their natural ability to heal and balance other people. In Nuahn, the goal of the teachings is to heal and balance yourself.

The first level of Nuahn teaches conscious control of the neural brain patterns and the electromagnetic field surrounding the physical body. One of the most difficult lessons is: self control of thought. Nuahn also teaches one to connect to powerful healing energies of the Universal Self.

What qualifies a person to seek this teaching? How can it benefit the student? And most of all, how can it help humanity? Nuahn teaches how to overcome life's roadblocks and our own self-defeating thoughts. It teaches how to perceive our inner beauty and accept our divine right as creators on this planet. Nuahn teaches how to see through deception, and discern self-illusion. Level one is more than an introductory class, level one's teachings guarantee results when followed and applied to one's life.

For Nuahn to have any result, practice is essential! Nuahn only requires 15 minutes a day of practice. Of course, if a person gives Nuahn 30 minutes or more a day, the results will be faster.

N.U.A.H.N. Level 1 is about 6 hours and approximately 1 day long. This teaching will consist of a series of activations, meditation exercises, & energy expansion techniques. The activations will include: dual soul merging with harmonic akashic alignment. This workshop is also designed to give the student personal attention while working in a group dynamic. One of Nuahn's main teaching philosophy is everyone learns and no one is left out.

The Quantum Leap: Claiming Our Truth!

By Wisdom Teacher Sri Ram Kaa
and Angelic Oracle Kira Raa

Over seventy years ago Gandhi stated:
“An error does not become truth by reason of multiplied propagation, nor does truth become error because nobody sees it.”

Our world has arrived at its moment of truth. That critical point of reckoning that clearly demonstrates that structures based upon models of antiquity are releasing and new paradigms are coming forward. This brings forward a challenge to those of us who are navigating the planet during this time. Are we ready to fully embrace our truth?

Now take a breath, for to anchor in the truth that is now before us is to fully recognize the higher order of all prophecy. As we race toward 2012 the abundance of prophecy that is being circulated and speculated upon is literally dizzying! If one engages this information at the level of information only, the common response is confusion, fear and distortion.

What if the higher order of prophecy is to bring us back to awareness that we are the masters of our experience and need not surrender to the interpretations of others! What if prophecy helps us to recognize that we are capable of co-creating ANY OUTCOME that aligns with our soul's evolution? In a time of truth, this would manifest as the ability to go beyond the existing paradigms that have held prophecies in consciousness. We can now demonstrate that we have indeed grown into our spiritual maturity!

There are many energies that are bringing forward deeper levels of truth without the energy of judgment wrapped around it AND there are many energies present that are indeed stimulating both judgment and fear. How we navigate these energies directly contributes to the manifestation we are now co-creating on our planet.

Let's look at the examples that are recently before us. The United States just went through a dynamic and lengthy election process. For close to two years the energy of change, frustration and fear have been bombarding the public in the attempt to influence those who seek power. People were afraid of the existing administration; people were afraid of one or both of the proposed candidates or their running mates and hope was at all times connected to a fear that things might get worse! Regardless of where your vote or non-vote was cast, the energy of fear swelled to an all time high as a means to stimulate action on many levels.

When we empower fear-based activism through our focus and our dollars, we subsequently empower the very energy we are trying to release. This process is an extraordinarily effective way to actually keep us from energizing our true freedom; the birthright of us all. Judgment fuels traditional activism, which has at its core the energy of “my way is right”, and therefore “your way is flawed”. Even when the apparent cause is seen as being righteous and fair, there is still a core energy of polarization. The good news is that for many, it is through this process they fully awaken.

As we embrace and grow into our spiritual maturity we easily put aside the judgments that fuel anger and polarization and smile that ALL of these energies have lovingly brought us to this momentous time on our planet. This is a great part of the truth claiming process. To recognize that all of our experiences, prophecies, judgements and interactions are and were the gift that brought us to this moment of conscious expansion. This is the process under way in our country and across the globe. Many people are working through activism and others are popping into a Unity-based Awareness.

We have been honored to share many moments in Guatemala during 2007 and 2008 with High Priests of the Maya. Sharing sacred energies and insights, one of the most powerful discernments that we have witnessed consistently is that the Mayans are confident and prepared for an imminent shift into the Age of Light. They smile that so many are interpreting their calendar with fear and judgment, AND they recognize that perhaps that fear energy is what is necessary by those who seek to awaken.

In truth, reunification of the Eagle and the Condor re-creates the bridge of light anchored by the heart and sustained by releasing all doubt of ourselves, all doubt of our world, and all doubt of our universe. As we fully enter this age of light we transcend the old paradigms, we literally become this unified energy. We joyously discover that words are no longer necessary for our Beingness ‘speaks’ clearly. Our mere presence frees others to release their doubts and do the same.

Only as we embrace all paths and burst forth from the chaos do we open the doorway to unified presence. We have discovered that the mystical revelations from the Mayan High Priests in the highlands of Guatemala offer reassurance, while the Divine Universal Wisdom of the Archangelic realm offers guidance. True harmony results when Wisdom and Love unite in heart-centered action. As we unlock the keys to navigating these times, each becomes free to live their truth!

This truth comes forward by freeing our minds, anchoring our hearts, and living authentically without doubt or fear for our future! The truth becomes anchored each time we walk through fear and discover that it has no power at all.

The extraordinary events that are unveiling themselves all around us are indeed inviting us to claim an Anchored Presence. Each event can serve to help us re-member why we are on this planet at this very moment in history. Then, we can walk our souls journey without any self-doubt.

It is the time to stop talking and start BEING... 2012 is already here! The energy of Awakening has enveloped our planet and continues its crescendo to stimulate consciousness. To celebrate this acceleration and Awakening, on March 13, 2009, (yes, it is a Friday the 13th), energies are converging to support a powerful moment in our history. A moment to fully discover how powerful you are and how important your presence is for our collective future. On that weekend hundreds of people are gathering in Los Angeles to celebrate that we are still here, that we are ready to claim our truth, that we are ready to release fear and that we are ready to move forward in true freedom!

We encourage you to stop talking about our future, to resist engaging in pessimistic options and to allow yourself the gift of joining us IN PERSON to fully anchor this presence for yourself and our world. The 2012 Quantum Leap Celebration brings together extraordinary synergies to fully anchor this truth, through art, music and awareness. Go to www.2012QuantumLeap.com to further reveal the many gifts waiting for you to claim.

With each breath may you know that the moment of your true freedom is here! With each moment may you embrace your truth with spaciousness and joy. With each heartbeat may you know that you are a Divine Co-creator and that your presence matters!
